

F.M. proposes itself as a technical materials study, design and implementation of technical articles of

All necessary operations to create a new article in thermoplastic material are conducted within the Company. All this allows us to warrant strict confidence in the development of new projects.

The quality of all FM products is guaranteed by a quality control system certified since 1995, quality that rewards the product.

Furthermore, in January 2008, laboratories accredited by A. I. I. R. I. C., published on the Official Journal n.26, 31/01/2008.

The company spread over 12700 square metres of which:

- * 2000 sm used for production
- * 1500 sm used as warehouse
- * 1350 sm used for offices
- * 50 sm used for research & development
- * And the remaining is outer courtyard area.

